

Consumption

"Anyone interested in the cure of Consumption should get one of the booklets telling of recovery by the use of Eckman's Alternative."

Coughs, Stomach Colds and Pneumonia may be the beginning of more serious troubles—Eckman's Alternative is the effective remedy. Read Mr. Kanaly's statement: "For five or six years I was troubled with cough and expectoration. I also had a high fever. My case was declared Consumption by my physician. I was given Cod Liver Oil, Creosote and other medicines, all without benefit."

At Christmas time, 1906, I was not expected to live. Calling another physician, he advised the use of Eckman's Alternative, which I took with excellent results and was entirely cured."

During the past year I have gained 15 lbs. I go out in all weathers and have had no cough or cold whatever. I give these facts to encourage others to use Eckman's Alternative."

(Signed Affidavit) James W. Kanaly, Eckman's Alternative cures Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Affections. Ask for booklet of cured cases and write to the Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for additional evidence. For Sale by all leading druggists and Burt H. Wells in Barre, Vt.

Women's Secrets

There is one man in the United States who has perhaps heard more women's secrets than any other man or woman in the country. These secrets are not secrets of guilt or shame, but the secrets of suffering, and they have been confided to Dr. R. V. Pierce in the hope and expectation of advice and help. That few of these women have been disappointed in their expectations is proved by the fact that ninety-eight per cent. of all women treated by Dr. Pierce have been absolutely and altogether cured. Such a record would be remarkable if the cases treated were numbered by hundreds only. But when that record applies to the treatment of more than half-a-million women, in a practice of over 40 years, it is phenomenal, and entitles Dr. Pierce to the gratitude accorded him by women, as the first of specialists in the treatment of women's diseases.

Every sick woman may consult Dr. Pierce by letter, absolutely without charge. All replies are mailed, sealed in perfectly plain envelopes, without any printing or advertising whatever, upon them. Write without fear as without fee, to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

RANDOLPH.

John Kimball is again in town after many months of absence.

Miss Maria Amsden returned to her home in Leominster, Mass., Wednesday, after having passed a few days with relatives here.

Mrs. Durkee, who had been the guest of her nephew, Dr. F. C. Angell, went to Pittsfield, Wednesday, for a visit with friends.

Mrs. Guy Lamson and daughter, Elizabeth, left here Wednesday for New York, where she expects to remain with relatives till about Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Arthur Slack and her daughter, Gertrude, went to White River Junction Wednesday to join Mr. Slack, who is employed on bridge building in that vicinity.

Mrs. Mary Saxton has arrived from Holyoke, Mass., to assist Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Beidle in celebrating their golden wedding anniversary, which occurs on Friday, the 28th.

Mrs. Harold Perkins of Woodstock has been the guest of her parents, Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hamilton, since Monday and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hamilton, who were married last week, were also entertained at the same place till Wednesday, when they left for their home in St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Perkins accompanying them as far as White River Junction on her way to her home in Woodstock.

Willard Gay reached his 88th birthday Tuesday, the 25th, and the day was passed quietly at the home on Main street. Mr. Gay, though not strong physically, is a remarkable man of his age and is one of Randolph's oldest inhabitants, he having been a resident of this village for more than 50 years and prominently identified with many of its business interests. Mr. Gay was born in Stockbridge, October 25, 1822, and was the son of Daniel and Sally (Baker) Gay, his early life having been passed there. In 1851 he came to Randolph and in all these years has ever been active in every work for the promotion of the welfare and prosperity of the village. Mr. Gay has been a director of the Randolph National bank since its organization and has also been interested in real estate in town.

The venerable George Bradshaw, now past eighty years of age, went last week to Barre to visit his daughter, Mrs. Moorcroft, and also to be present at the wedding of his granddaughter, Miss Moorcroft.

At the auction sale of Noah C. Taylor Tuesday, there was a large crowd and auctioneer C. F. Smith was in trim to keep the crowd good natured and on the auctioneer's stand and good prices were realized. The farm was purchased by George Hutchins of East Barre for $3,500. Mr. Taylor has not decided as yet whether he will remain in town or look elsewhere to locate.

Auctions are all the rage here now and two more farmers have taken the fever. W. Henry Alger, who for the past fifteen years has lived on the Elijah Barnes farm, on the north road to Brookfield, on the west hill, will sell his farm, stock and tools and hay on Thursday, Oct. 27, at which time Mr. Charles N. Barber of Barre will wield the hammer. On Wednesday, November 2, Roy B. Sanborn, administrator of the estate of his father, the late Benson Sanborn, advertises to sell the farm, stock, tools and hay, and at this sale Charles F. Smith of Barre City will conduct the sale. Both of these farms are grand hill farms, in good localities and in good state of cultivation and in each case there will be a good opportunity for some one to purchase good property at their own figures.

Worms

Hundreds of children and adults have worms, but are treated for other diseases. The symptoms are: indigestion, with a variable appetite; full tongue; offensive breath; hard and full belly with occasional griping pains about the navel; eyes heavy and dull; itching of the throat; short, dry cough; grinding of the teeth; starting during sleeping from fever; and often in children, convulsions.

TRUE'S ELIXIR

is the best worm remedy made. It has been in use since 1851. It is purely vegetable, harmless and effective. Worms are present in acute and chronic cases, and a valuable remedy in all the common complaints of children. Price 25 cents. Ask your druggist for it.

Feet So Sore Couldn't Walk Down Stairs--

TIZ Cured Her Quick.

If you have sore feet, tired feet, sweaty feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, callouses or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett of Jeffersonville. TIZ DID IT. Mr. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs one foot at a time. She has not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes."

No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out the poisonous excretions which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25c per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Lusher Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The White Squaw" Comes to Barre Thursday and Friday.

There are many facts of interest associated with the romantic American drama, "The White Squaw," and surrounding the origin of the play. It is from the pen of Della M. Clarke, who became well known as an actor before she added to her fame by turning playwright. The scenes are laid in the forests of Michigan, near to what was then the little settlement of Detroit for the people of "The White Squaw" were entitled something like a century ago.

SCENE FROM "THE WHITE SQUAW"
Barre Opera House Thursday and Friday.

Miss Clarke's grandparent were among the first settlers in Michigan; they helped to blaze the pathway for the making and prosperity of our nation. In this way they came into close association with the Indians—not the hideously painted caricature of wild West show and melodrama, but the genuine and original American of higher sentiment and better purpose. The grandparent lived among the redskins and were greatly beloved by them. To Miss Clarke's grandmother, the Indians gave the name of "The White Squaw," the title used for the play. It was from a story the aged grandmother told to Miss Clarke, then little more than a baby, that "The White Squaw" was written. The story deals with two sisters, one dark and the other golden haired. Fate throws the former into the hands of Indians by whom she is reared and made to believe she is their own child, while the other grows to womanhood in a distant land. Each is unaware of the other's being, then at last they are brought together, but without knowing the relation that exists. From this situation is woven the story of tender sentiment, graceful romance and throbbing heart interest.

Deeply impressed as a child by this story that had been a reality in the knowledge of the grandmother, Miss Clarke kept the facts in mind during the passing years, made a close study of the history of that period and finally wrote the play, "The White Squaw," under the direction of Louis F. Verha, will be seen at the opera house on Thursday and Friday evenings, October 27 and 28.

The Girl Who Lives Alone

whether she attends college or goes to business, needs the Perfection Oil Heater. It will heat a cold, cheerless boarding house or dormitory room and make it livable. It is always a ready help in the many things women do for themselves in their rooms. With the damper top opened it will heat water for tea or cocoa; it will dry the small articles that a woman prefers to wash herself in her own room. It will quickly heat an iron or curling tongs; quickly dry wet shoes or skirts—an ever ready help for the woman who lives alone, dependent on her own resources. The is invaluable in its capacity of quickly giving heat. It will burn nine hours with one filling. It is safe, smokeless and odorless; has a cool handle and a damper top.

An indicator shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain. It has an automatic-locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so the wick can be quickly cleaned.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, and can be unscrewed in an instant for reworking. Finished in Japan or nickel, strong, durable, well-made, built for service, and yet light and ornamental.
